Model in special colour

We are happy to advise you!

We offer this service for Schnabels® ducks, MiniFeet® plush animals, Schmoozies® display cleaners, Squeezies® and Mr. Bert®.

We look forward to your requests!

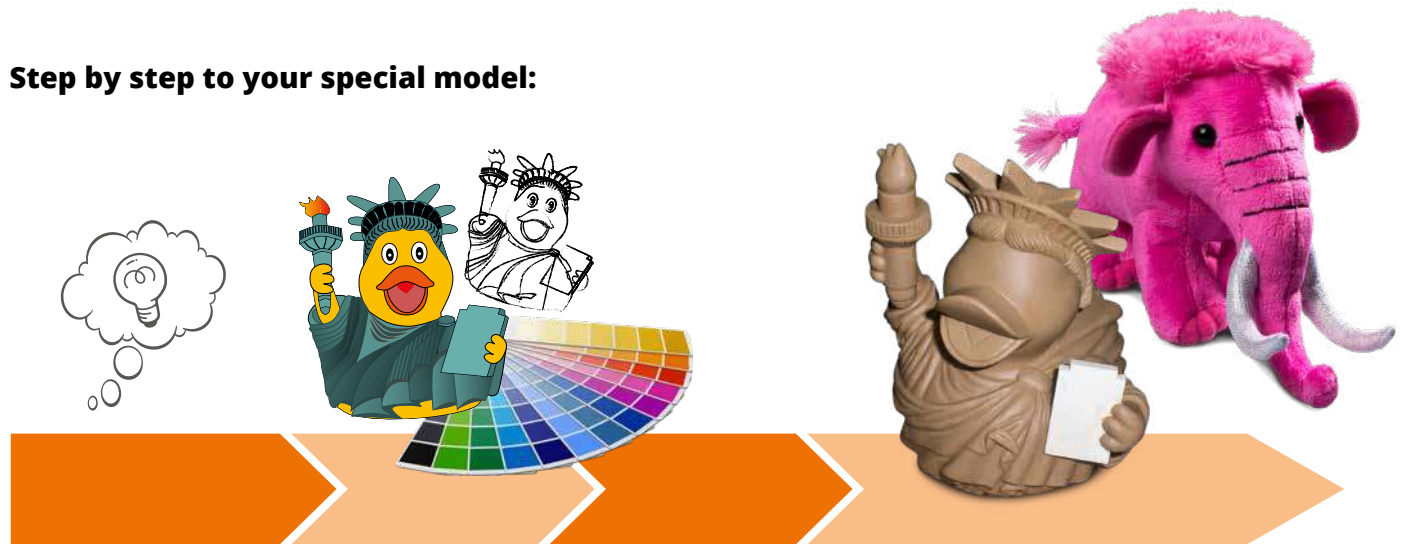

We develop your promotional product as a special model.

You have found the right product, but you would like to implement your own mascot or theme?
No problem! Together we develop tailor-made promotional products for your advertising message.

In detailed discussions with our qualified consultants we discuss your requirements and ideas. We develop your special model for you and thus the optimal promotional product. There are hardly any limits to your creativity.

We offer this service for rubber ducks, plush animals, display cleaners and anti-stress items of the Squeezies® brand and for Mr. Bert®.

Step by step to your special model:

Your idea

We discuss your requirements, notions and ideas and advise you about the manifold options of a special production.

The visualisation

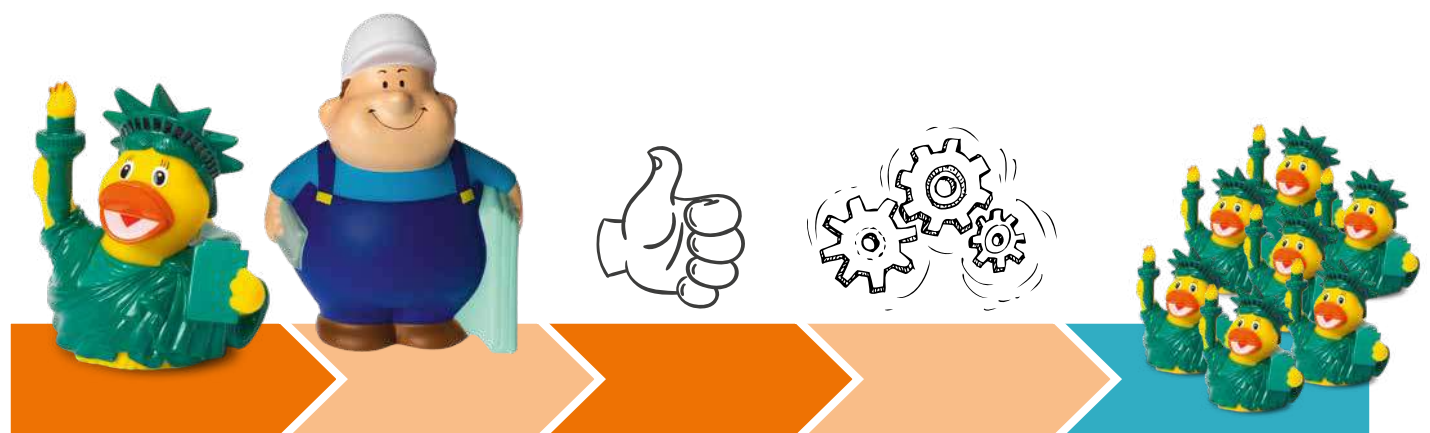

Our designers put your ideas into practice and visualise the special model for you in your desired colours.

Your corrections

We discuss the visualisation and take note of any required changes. We improve the visualisation until approval.

The first sample

After order placement our product modellers produce your first sample by hand – in the case of plush animals directly in the original material. We present your special model to you and show you the haptic elaboration, which reconciles the visualisation with the technical possibilities. We take note of any possible required changes regarding the shape and carry these out.

The second sample

For rubber ducks, Squeezies® and Mr. Bert®, after noting your corrections a further sample is made out of a special plaster cast. This sample is dyed in your desired colours and sent to you for approval.

The final correction

Should you require any further changes to the colouring of the plaster cast sample, we gladly carry these out.

The approval

As soon as the special product meets all of your requirements, you release it for production.

We start producing

The ball starts rolling! The tools are produced for your special model and the serial production of your personal promotional products gets underway.

The delivery

Depending on the product (see overleaf) you receive your ordered quantity within a few weeks.

All information regarding delivery times and minimum volumes can be found on the reverse side of the flyer.
